G. B. BAKER HEADS BANKERS' GROUP 3

SECRETARY BECOMES PRESIDENT AT ST. JOSEPH MEETING

REPORT GOOD BUSINESS

Increase in Land Sales Given as a Reason for Rush; Several From Nodaway in Attendance

George B. Baker, president of the Real Estate Bank of this city, was elected president of Group Three of the Missouri Bankers' Association in their annual convention in St. Joseph yesterday. Among the Nodaway county bankers in attendance at the meeting were Mr. Baker and George L. Wilfley of Maryville; George Cole and John Fields of Barnard; and Carl Wray of Guilford. Mr. Wilfley's son, Ray S. Wilfley, of Steele City, Neb., who is cashier of the bank at that place, attended the meeting at St. Joseph.

That the banking institutions throughout northwest Missouri are doing the greatest business in history, was the general opinion expressed by representatives of banks from twelve counties in this section of the state at the convention yesterday.

The active increase in land sales the past year is given, by most bankers, as the reason for the extraordinary volume of business, while the increase in the price of commodities, due to after war conditions, has made the deposits heavy, they say.

Practically all of the bankers, when broached on the subject, were of the opinion that the price of land will not decrease, but that speculation has practically run its course. Eastern loan companies, they say, have not recognized the increased prices in land in this section of the country, and are making loans on a valuation of $60 an acre. As the land valuations are running much higher than this, the remainder must be secured from other sources, they say. Speculations to a great extent have been local, only a few speculators from the east coming this far west.

While the increase in business has been more noticeable among the newer banks, the old established institutions have been affected, bankers say.

One reason advanced by the bankers from northwest Missouri counties for their belief that land values will not decrease is that the values in this part of the state are not now as high as in Illinois and Iowa, and even in some parts of northeastern Kansas, where production is no greater.

M. H. S. SENIORS PLAN TWO AFFAIRS FOR NEAR FUTURE

Box Supper Set for a Week from This Evening; County Fair Later; Colors, Flowers Chosen

Two social events of considerable importance to the students of the Maryville High School and to the people of Maryville generally were planned at the meeting of the senior class of the high school last night.

A committee was appointed by the president to arrange for a box supper to be given in the high school gymnasium at 8 o'clock the evening of Wednesday, October 22. The proceeds of this supper will be given to the high school athletic association.

A county fair, to take place later in the year, is also under consideration.

The class last night chose pink and green as the class colors, and the pink rose was selected as the class flower.

MRS. J. W. KNIGHT, KING CITY HEADS DEMOCRATIC WOMEN

Chosen Chairman of State Committee; Resolution Asks Ratification of the Peace Treaty

Jefferson City, Oct. 15.—Women of the state Democratic committee met here yesterday to perfect an organization. In executive session the following officers were elected:

Chairman, Mrs. J. W. Knight, King City; vice chairman, Mrs. J. J. Cutten, Jefferson City; secretary, Mrs. Kate R. Morrow, Carrensburg, and treasurer, Mrs. [illegible] Rutledge, St. Louis.

A resolution appealing to the senate for speedy ratification of the peace treaty, leaving the question of reservations and amendments to the League of Nations after organized, was adopted by the women meeting in executive session.

This was a substitute for a resolution offered by Mrs. Jemima Hughes of Keytesville, which would endorse President Wilson and the league covenant and deeply deplore the attitute of the senior senator from Missouri," in regard to the treaty and convenant. The last paragraph of Mrs. Hughes' resolution read:

"We insistently urge and demand that the Hon. James A. Reed, senior senator from Missouri, shall withdraw his opposition and vote for the immediate ratification of the treaty without amendment or reservation."

THERE EXISTS NO CONNECTION BETWEEN CENSUS AND TAXES

Work of Gathering Facts for the Government Will Begin Jannary 2, 1920; Figures Are Secret

Washington, October 15.—"That the facts and figures gathered by the enumerators, supervisors and special agents of the Fourteenth Decennial Census will have absolutely nothing to do with valuation of property for taxation purposes is a point I desire to emphasize with all possible vigor," said Director of the Census Sam L. Rogers today in speaking of the forthcoming 1920 enumeration.

"Some diffienlty has been experienced in the past," continued Mr. Rogers, "in getting absolutely accurate values of land and other property because of a certain amount of confusion over this point. Many people were erroneously inclined to connect the Census with taxation. We hope to avoid any such confusion this time."

The ache of congress which, under the Constitution, provides for the taking of the Fourteenth Decennial Census makes it unlawful for any enumerator, special agent, supervisor or other employee of the Census Bureau to divulge any information whatsoever concerning the census returns. A heavy fine and possible imprisonment, or both, is the penalty prescribed for violation of this provision of the law.

The proper tabulated figures of the Census are given out nowhere but here in Washington and then only upon the express authority of the Director of the Census Bureau.

Actual work by the enumerators in the various census districts will begin on January 2, 1920. It is expected that the population statistics of all cities and towns will be gathered in approximately two weeks. Final figures for rural districts, however, can hardly be gathered in less than a month

Gardner's Pen to Historical Society.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 15.—One of the features of the Missouri Suffrage convention here Thursday afternoon will be the presentation of the pen with which Governor Gardner signed the state suffrage bill to the Missouri Historical Society. The ceremony will take place at the Jefferson Memorial and will be open to the public. Mrs. George Gellhorn, president of the Missouri Suffrage Association, will make thepresentation address. Ambassador David R. Francis will accept the pen on behalf of the Society. The presentation will take place during the memorial service to Dr. Anna Howard Shaw.

Columbia Policemen Lose Tips.

Columbia, Mo., Oct. 15.—Columbia's policemen have lost their tips. The City Council has passed an ordinance compelling the policemen to turn over to the general fund all moneys received from merchants and citizens for small favors such as turning on and off show window lightsc, reporting unlocked doors, etc.

CITY SCHEDULES A TRADE WEEK, TOO

ANOTHER ATTRACTION ANNOUNCED FOR NEXT WEEK

BARGAINS ARE PLANNED

Ad Club Fathers Stunt Here; Is Addition to Agricultural Show and Teachers Meeting

Next week is going to be a big week in Maryville. Events have been shaping themselves toward that end for sometime. First the announcement was made of the annual Nodaway County Agricultural and Domestic Science Association's show, to be held at the State Teachers College Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Then came the announcement of the annual convention of the Northwest Missouri Teachers Association, which will be held at the State Teachers College the same days.

And now today, to cap it all, comes word of the first stunt of the newly organized Maryville Advertising Club—the Maryville Trade Week, which will run from Monday to Saturday, inclusive.

This, which is expected to be the most important merchandising event offered in Northwest Missouri in several years, will attract buyers to Maryville through special bargains in thirty-seven lines of merchandise that are mentioned and several that are included under the "etc." The Maryville merchants have stocked up on goods, so that a good assortment will be open to the visitors, and a sincere effort will be made to please, so that shopping relations that are established at that time may be maintained.

As a guarantee of the sincerity of the merchants taking part, the ad club is emphasizing its two slogans—the national one of "Truth in Advetising" and the local one of "Service Through Co-operation."

It is expected that this week will be seasonable ,insofar as it will give the visitors an opportunity to purchase winter goods in the nick of time.

The usual local amusements will be in operation during the week. In addition, of course, will be the agricultural show and the teachers meeting, each of which is expected to bring a crowd to town.

CAN'T BLAME FREIGHT RATES FOR H. C. OF L., HE DECLARES

President of Southern Pacific Shows Increase is Nowhere Near Increased Value of Goods

In a discussion of the increased cost of living, Julius Kruttschnitt, president of the Southern Pacific company, shows that in 1914, the year before the war, the average value of freight carried by the railroads was $56 a ton, and the average freight charge was $2. At the present time Mr. Kruttschnitt estimates the average value of goods transported by the railroads at $119 a ton with freight charges averaging $2.80 a ton. Therefore, while there has been an increase of $63 a ton in the average value of freight transported, the increase in the freight charges has been only 80 cents.

Freight charges in 1914 were 3.6% of the value of the articles transported, while now they are only 2.4% of the value.

To put it in another way, Mr. Kruttschnitt's investigation shows that for every dollar of increase in the price of goods since 1914, only 1 1-3 cents can be charged to the increased freight rates. The other 98 2-3 cents of increased cost must be sought elsewhere than in railway freight charges.

M. H. S. FOOTBALL TEAM AIMS FOR GOOD GAME HERE FRIDAY

Albany Comes With a Record of Playing Some Strong Outfits; Two Local Men Out

The Maryville High School football team is busy practicing for Friday afternoon's clash with Albany on the local grounds. Already the signs have been painted on the sidewalks. Albany has been playing some strong teams this season, according to word received here, and is expected to put up a good battle for the victory.

Although Maryville is badly crippled by losing DeArmond and Captain Foreman, who still carry injuries from the first game at Bethany, the local squad is full of enthusiasm for the game.

Judging from its early season form, the Maryville team is considered a worthy successor to the championship team of last year, and the high school rooters are hoping again to have the best team in northwest Missouri.

There will be a box and pie social at the Herron school, 3 miles northwest of Maryville, Friday night, Oct. 17. Miss Alta Doyle is the teacher.

Though the War Is Over, Nodaway Still Has Ties Binding to France

Although the war is over, the ties of gratitude still link parts of France to Nodaway county, and the letters of French war orphans supported from this county are being received all the time. Unanimously they speak warm gratitude.

Among the orphans being helped by this county are two under the care of the Lasher Community Club, in the Lasher school district, west of Maryville. The club's orphans are a girl and a boy, Madeline Cherean of Cheverny, France, and Andre Vial of Troyes. The first letter from Madeline was received some time ago, while the first from Andre has just come.

So far, the two haven't quite digested the fact that it is a club that is taking care of them. Their letters are addressed to Miss Ella O'Grady, who is secretary of the club and who has done all the writing to them up to the present time.

Writes Andre, in French, in the letter just received:

"My Dear Godmother:

"I am very much touched to learn that you have deigned to interest yourself in me, and I am very happy to have you for a godmother. Mamma and I thank you with a full heart for your generosity, because I have just received an order for 45 francs, due to your goodness.

"I shall permit myself, if perhaps it may make you happy, to give you some details concerning myself. I think that you already know my name. I am called Andre Vial. I was 12 years old on the sixth of May. At this time I am on a vacation, but I shall return to my classes on October 1. I am alone with my mamma. I have neither a brother nor a sister. My papa was killed October 22, 1916, in the Somme district (the Somme is a department of the North, where he fell a very long time ago).

"My mother is a dressmaker. She works to take acre of us, and I love her well. I wish to be already big in order to help her, and I hope next year to begin to work.

"Dear godmother, I am very much flattered to be able to write to an American miss, for I liked the American soldiers very much, among whom I found a good comrade. I liked him very much, and I am much disappointed not to have news of him, and I shall keep a very good remembrance of him.

"I beg of you to try to excuse the faults of my letter. Mamma joins with me in addressing to you our most affectionate thanks.

"Your devoted godson,

"ANDE VIAL."

(Then he writes in English to show that he has a dictionary):

"Mamma and me to shape some wish of happiness for you."

And again in French:

"If you do not know French, write in English. I shall find it easy to translate your letter."

Leone Darmony, who lives with her mother in Orleans, France, is one of the first war orphans who has learned to write in English. Leone has been studying English all summer preparing to write to her beloved godmother, Mrs. Mary Kost-Riffle of Maryville. At last, by the first of September, the little girl felt that she was ready to write the letter. It is a good letter, too. Better than an American child of twelve can write. It is written on unruled paper in blue ink. Not a word is misspelled. Here it is:

"My Dear Godmother: I am having my summer holidays and learning English very hard. I should be so pleased to write my letters quite alone, and to understand yours. Since a few days, the weather is getting cooler, so we can run in the garden with my little friends. We play together while my mother is at work. Perhaps one day I shall be able to go over to America and visit your great farm. The ducklings must be very amusing. With fond love, from your little

LOCAL CHURCHES PLAN S. S. RALLY

ARRANGE TO OBSERVE "GO-TO-SUNDAY-SCHOOL" DAY

PROGRAMS ARRIVE HERE

Special Efforts Being Made to Insur Complete Attendance of All Members Possible

The Protestant churches of Maryville just now are turning their attention to getting a complete enrollmen ready for "Go-to-Sunday-School" Sunday, which will be observed nationally and internationally on October 26. Programs for the day have been received in Maryville from the state Sunday school association and are being distributed, and the ministers and Sunday school superintendents are arranging systems to get all the members acquainted with the work, so that an attendance of one hundred per cent may be obtained.

The committee in charge of the work at the First Christian church met last night and arranged to send out letters to all the families in the church and to prospective members. These letters invite all to attend and tell of the work that is to be done. Later there will be visitors appointed to see all the members personally and to obtan their signatures to pledge cards for attendance. Just at the last minute, imitation telegrams will be sent out by special carriers to remind all of the day.

The Christian church is working for an attendance of 1,000 at the meeting. The program as sent out will be followed.

The Presbyterian church has a group organization to work up a good attendance. The congregation is divided into twenty-two groups of about eight families each, each with a group leader. These leaders work under the direction of Dean G. H. Colbert and will arrange to see that all their families attend. The program will be as near the regular Sunday school program as posisble.

The following group leaders have been named:

Mrs. Karl E. Zimmerman, W. R. Wells, Miss Jessie Parcher, Roy Lippman, Mrs. T. M. C. Neff, Fred Kurtz, Miss Lucie Davis, John D. Richey, Miss Nora Ritze, C. E. Wells, Mrs. J. H. Gray, Prof. H. P. Swinehart, Fred French, Mrs. W. J. Snider, Miss Elizabeth Sawyers, Hal T. Hooker, Mrs. Samuel McClurg, Mrs. S. G. Gillam, J. A. Ford, Miss Faye Sprecher and two others not yet arranged.

The First M. E. church will proceed under its regular organization, which has been worked out in detail. A careful list of all members has been made, and the teachers will act as attendance secretaries to see that as many as possible attend. Each class will be responsible for those who belong to it. Special meetings will be held in the adult classes. All through the Sunday school an emphasis will be placed on the class work.

The South Methodist church has a group system of working up attendance. There are about fifteen groups. The set program of the state association will be followed. That Sunday will be made a general rally day for the church, with a special rally day sermon by the pastor at 11 o'clock.

The Baptist church has not yet completed its arrangements for the day, but a real effort will be made to insure a good attendance, according to J. R. Lowry, who is the superintendent.

The general features of the program arranged by the state association are as follows:

1. Quieting Music. (A selection played softly, at the sound of which all will be silent.

2. Call to Worship.

3. Hymn—"Holy, Holy, Holy."

4. Prayer. (Thanksgiving for God's Word and asking His blessing upon our Sunday school and all school the world around).

5. Responsive Reading — "The Word."

6. Testimonies From Great Men—(To be recited by three boys previously seletced).

Abraham Lincoln—"I am profitably engaged in reading the Bible. The Bible is the best gift God has given to man. All things most desirable for man's welfare here and hereafter are to be found in it."

Daniel Webster—"If we abide by the principles taught in the Bible our country will go on prospering, but, if our posterity neglect its instruction and authority, no man can tell how sudden a catastrophe may overwhelm us and bury our country to profound obscurity."

Woodrow Wilson—"No study is more important * * * than the study of the Bible and the truth which it teaches. There is no more effective agency for such study than the Sunday school."

7. Hymn—"Holy Bible, Book Devine." (If preferred, "Break Thou the Bread of Life" may be used instead).

8. Responsive Reading—"The Sunday School."

"International Go-to-Sunday-School Day."

"The State Sunday Shcool Association."

9. Hymn—"Onward Christian Soldiers."

10. Lesson Period. (Give the full length of time, as usual, to the regular lesson period).

11. Business. Reports and announcements. (Include members enrolled, goal for the day and number actually present).

12. Greeting to visitors. By the pastor or superintendent, including invitation to remain to the church service and a warm invitation to return the following Sunday.

13. Hymn—"Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus."

14. Closing Prayer.

TWENTY-TWO STATES JOIN IN MISSISSIPPI VALLEY BOOST

Campaign On to Raise $100,000 to Promote Commercial Interests; 32,000,000 Farmers in District

St. Louis, Oct. 15.—What is said to be the first united commercial campaign of the North and South in the Mississippi valley since the Civil war is on today—the effort of the Mississippi Valley Association to raise a $100,000 fund for the promotion of ocmmercial interests in the valley, which started simultaneously in twenty-two states yesterday.

With the coming of the campaign announcement was made at the St. Louis headquarters that every congressman and senator from the Mississippi states has pledged himself to vote for every measure to come up in the law-making halls of the nation, which will benefit the valley.

Letters from headquarters in practically every city of importance in the twenty-two states were this morning speeding through the mails, calling attention to the campaign and asking aid. No direct contributions are being asked — the money is to be raised through membership fees in the association. Voting membership costs $100, and non-voting membership $10. To become a member one must pledge his support in furthering the interests of the valley, in stamping out Bolshevism, in upholding the United States government, and in endeavoring to stabilize industrial unrest by increased production.

Thirty-two million farmers are included in the fifty million persons in the territory represented by the association.

Charles Sutton is director of Zone No. 4, the St. Louis district of Missouri, with headquarters in St. Louis.

Army Officers Must Exercise.

Boston, Oct. 15. — Army officers must play football, tennis or golf, or take such other exercise as will keep them in physical fitness. This exercise must be taken half a day weekly in addition to Sundays and holidays. This was officially announced at army headquarters.

CLASS ARRANGES A SCREEN PARTY

JUNIORS OF M. H. S. WILL ENTERTAIN FRIDAY EVENING

YOU MAY SEE YOURSELF

Snapshots Taken by Members Being Made into Slides; Additional Features on the Program

A "screen party", something new and unusual in the line of entertainment for Maryville, has been arranged by the junior class of the Maryville high school and will be given by the members of the class in the high school building beginning at 7:45 o'clock next Friday evening, October 17. It will be a big day for the high school students, as the high school football team will play the team from Albany here that same afternoon.

The proceeds of the entertainments, which is to be open to all on the payment of a 25-cent entrance fee, will go to the high school athletic association.

Since the beginning of school this year, the members of the class have been using their cameras freely, snapping their friends and acquaintances in moments of relaxation. These pictures are being made into slides under the supervision of F. R. Marcell, and the results will be thrown on the screen at the high school Friday evening. A good variety of first class pictures is promised.

The pitcures taken by the juniors include their schoolmates, friends and the school faculty. The collection includes groups, singles, football pictures, freaks and comics of various kinds. Of course there will be a lecturer—a noted one—present to explain the different slides and a program is being arranged consisting of recitations, music by the male quartette, solos, pianologs and two special numbers.

MORE CENSUS APPLICANTS FOR EXAMINATION DESIRED

Government Prefers More Than One Competitor for Each Township; Quiz is to be Held Here

Joshua A. Graham, census enumerator for this congressional district, with headquarters at St. Joseph, in a letter to the postoffice here, writes that an examination for census enumerators will be held at the Maryville postoffice for Nodaway county during the week beginning the 27th day of this month.

Applicants for enumerators in this county should send in their names at once to the postoffice at Maryville, and the names will be sent in to Mr. Graham, who wil send application blanks to be filled out. A few applications from this county have been received by Mr. Graham, but the government prefers to have more than one enumerator for each township to take the examination.

In some of the townships of this county no one has yet applied.

Traveled by "Freight," Gets Divorce.

Denver, Colo., Oct. 15. — Because Mrs. Winnie Fisher was forced to "bum" her way, on blind baggages, in box cars and "riding the rods" from Montana to Denver, she was granted a divorce by Judge E. J. Ingram in county court here from Leslie E. Fisher. Mrs. Fisher said that her husband sent for her to join him in Montana. When she reached him he was starting for this city again and told her to "bum" her way back or stay there. She said she fell out of a box car, injuring her ankle so badly that she was unable to continue, but Fisher refused to remain with her.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Raines and Mr. and Mrs. Clive C. Graves returned Monday from a motor trip to Liberty, Mo., where they were guests over Sunday of Mrs. Graves' sister, Mrs. H. O. Perkins, and Mr. Perkins.

KANSAS CITY MAN EXPECTED TO SUCCEED JUDGE C. B. FARIS

Star Says Appointment of J. I. Williamson is Almost Certain; the Maryville Delegation Home

George Robb Ellison returned today at noon from Jefferson City, where he went Sunday with the Maryville delegation to see Governor Gardner in the interest of Judge J. W. Peery of Albany and to attend a meeting of the Democratic State Committee. He is the last to arrive here. A banquet was given by the committee to the women members of the state organization and to many other Democratic leaders at the Madison hotel in that city last night.

Yesterday's Kansas City Star had the following Jefferson City dispatch about the appointments to the supreme court bench:

John I. Williamson of Kansas City will be appointed judge of Division No. 2 of the supreme court to succeed Judge C. B. Faris, who has been appointed to the federal judgeship at St. Louis. That is considered certain. Governor Gardner said today he had "not made up his mind definitely" when asked if a Kansas City man would be named. But that is as much as to say Williamson will get the job.

The appointment will not be made until Judge Faris resigns and the governor makes up his mind on the successor for Judge Henry W. Bond.

The second place probably will go to St. Louis. All the present competitors for the Faris place have been eliminated except Williamson. One of the last to fall was Representative Frank Farris of Phelps county, who was ruled out because a member of the legislature is ineligible.

CALL ISSUED FOR STRIKE OF MINERS

WILL AFFECT 400,000 IN THE BITUMINOUS INDUSTRY

ARE TO GO OUT NOV. 1

Order Takes Effect Unless Controversy is Settled at Conference With Secretary Wilson

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 15.—The call for the nation wide strike of the soft coal miners was issued today by John Lewis, acting president of the miners.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 15.—The call for a nationwide strike of miners, involving more than 400,000 bituminous workers, will be forthcoming early this afternoon, it was stated authoritatively this morning at the headquarters of the United Mine Workers of America. The miners will lay down their tools November 1 unless the coal controversy is settled ot the conference with Secretary of Labor Wilson tomorrow, it was said.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 15.—Issuance of a strike call to hudreds of thousands of soft coal miners in the United States will not be postponed and the strike order may be forthcoming today, was the statement this morning of John Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers of America before his departure for Washington, where another effort will be made to avert the strike.

New York, Oct. 15.—With fifteen thousand of sixty thousand striking longshoremen returning to work today and agreeing to accept hourly wages of seventy cents until December 1, it is believed the back bone of the strike has been broken, eight of fity-three locals have voted to return to work.

GRUNDEL-COOPER REPLEVIN SUIT STILL IN COURT TODAY

Started Yesterday Afternoon; E. M. Malvern Gets Divorce From Estella L. Malvern

The replevin suit of Frank E. Grundel vs. W. V. Cooper and C. Cooper went to the jury about press time this afternoon. The case started yesterday afternoon, and the arguments to the jury were made by Prosecuting Attorney C. P. McCaffrey on one side and L. C. Cook and E. G. Cook on the other.

A divorce decree was granted Edward M. Malvern in his suit against Estella L. Malvern in court late yesterday afternoon. The divorce petition was filed during the afternoon, and the defendant signed a waiver of service and agreed to the cause being heard at once. The petition states that they were married in Nodaway county in December, 1914, and lived together until July, 1918. Desertion was the grounds for the divorce.

The suit of Fred A. Ereit vs. A. Waldier, on a contract, was dismissed by the plaintiff, the costs being paid.

Know the Lord's Prayer?

Boston, Oct. 15. — There are only eight persons in every thousand in the state of Massachusetts who know the Lord's prayer or the Ten Commandments, according to a survey made by th eInternational World Movement of the Churches. According to the survey made in New York, Massachusetts is ahead in the number of those who have heard of the Lord's prayer or the Ten Commandments. In New York the proportion is large of those who never heard of these two spiritual agencies.

More Loans Made to Farmers.

St. Louis, Oct. 15.—Loans made to farmers by the Federal Land Bank of St. Louis during the month of September, 1919, totaled $769,350, as compared to $382,000 for the same month last year, Herman W. Danforth, president of the bank announced today. Farmers, he said, were realizing more and more each day the large returns possible on money borrowed under the farm loan system.

Don't Agree in Court.

Cleveland, Ohio, Oct. 15.—Harry de Schambeult, thrity-four, wanted to conduct his own defense in a divorce suit brought by his wife.

"Can't," explaned Judge Kennedy.

"Will," shouted De Schambeult.

"Sit down," urged the Court.

"Won't," replied Harry.

"Jail till further notice," ruled the judge.

SAYS U. S. FARMERS OPPOSE THE CUMMINS RAILROAD BILL

Director of Council Writes to its Author and Charges That Wall Street Supports Plan

Washington, Oct. 15.—The farmers of the country today came out in opposition to the Cummins bill for the return of the railroads to private ownership. In a letter to Senator Cummins, George Hampton, managing editor of the farmers' national council, declared that the council demands government ownership of the railroads and charged that Wall Street interest are backing the Cummins bill.

CEREMONY ENDING THE WAR EXPECTED TO BE THURSDAY

Italian Signature to Treaty Will Arrive in Paris Today; Document Ready For Hungary

Paris, Oct. 15.—The official ceremony of the "ending of the war" will probably take place Thursday. Tittoni, Italian foreign minister, is expected to arrive late today bringing a copy of the treaty signed by the Italian king.

Paris, Oct. 15.—The Hungarian peace treaty is now completed. The peace conference is waiting, however, until a stable government is established at Budapest before presenting it.

GOMPERS IS ILL, BUT LABOR SEEKS FIGHT AT CONFERENCE

Frank Morrison Selected to Lead the Group; Baruch Plan for Mediation is Voted Down

Washington, Oct. 15.—Frank Morrison was selected by the labor group to speak for that body in Gompers' absence. The Baruch plan, which would have the conference put into the hands of the committee of fifteen the task of working out the machinery for industrial conciliation, was rejected. With the defeat of the Baruch plan a chorus of calls for the Gompers resolution came from the labor table. It was a call to battle and a demand that the conference face the fight that has been stalled off for the last two days.

Washington, Oct. 15. — The labor group, facing a crisis in the conference, went into the industrial conference today minus its leader, Samuel Gompers, whose illness is considered grave. Gompers' absence caused an immediate secret meeting to be held to select a spokesman and decide upon a plan of action. It was learned today that the labor group was hoplessly divided on the question of steel strike arbitration.

Washington, Oct. 15.—Samuel Gompers is ill in bed today with a temperature of 101 degrees. He took to his bed yesterday after addressing the industrial conference. Doctor Parker was called and found Gompers suffering from nervous exhaustion.

In the Gompers home, Mrs. Gompers is also in a serious condition, following a recent stroke of paralysis.

KIRKSVILLE T. C. MAY PLAY TARKIO AT FOOTBALL AGAIN

Team Maryville is to Meet This Week Tied Team That Whipped the Locals Two Weeks Ago

The Kirksville Teachers College bulldogs may get another whack at the husky Tarkio college team this year, if plans now being made for the big Teachers' association meeting at Kirksville October 23, 24 and 25 are carried out, says the Kirksville Daily Express.

A rattling good game for the conference has been the desire of those in charge, and after Friday's 6 to 6 tie at Tarkio it is believed that a return engagement would amply fill the bill. The Tarkio team outweighs Kirksville 15 pounds to the man, but they are fairly well matched in skill.

The K. T. C. team plays the Maryville Teachers College at Kirksville October 17. Tarkio defeated Maryville 27 to 0 a few days ago, so the Kirksville boys figure they have an excellent chance to win.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Zimmerman, accompanied by their daughter, Miss Ola Zimmerman, left Sunday night for Rockford, Ohio, where they will visit for a few weeks at the home of their son, Neil Zimmerman.

CLEAR CITY WATER IS IN SIGHT AGAIN

PIPES WILL BE FLUSHED SOON TO GET RID OF MUD

HAS CHANCE TO SETTLE

No Trouble Since Saturday, Says the Mayor; New Pumps May be In Before Long

The water that is being pumped from the city water station is clearer than that which is coming out of the faucets up town, according to Mayor W. O. Garrett, and Maryville people may look forward to really transparent water before long.

The situation at the pump station is about as satisfactory now as it has been in a long time, and the mayor hasn't had to fix anything since Saturday. He appreciates the unaccustomed rest, as it enables him to see what the inside of his office looks like again.

According to the mayor, the only thing that has kept the water from being clearer before this, is the fact that the supply in the reservoir has not been far enough ahead of the demand to allow it to settle and clear up. The water has had to be pumped out as soon as it was pumped in.

Fairly clear water is now being pumped at the river, and the mud in the pipes, which is keeping the supply dark up town, will be flushed out as soon as the supply gets big enough to allow of the necessary waste.

The work on the improvements at the plant is continuing in good order, according to the mayor, and bad weather is about all that can cause any considerable delay.

The new electric pumps should be installed shortly after the first of the month. This will do away with the pump trouble that has been chronic all summer and fall. The motors for the pumps are already here, and the smaller pump—the one that is to lift the water from the river to the reservoirs—was to have been shipped from the factory October 10.

The pumps will be put in place as soon as they arrive, without waiting for the completion of the other repairs at the plant.

A burning sensation in the throat and chest means bad digestion; and digestive trouble is the starting point for many serious diseases; particularly kidney disease. Better take Prickly Ash Bitters and put your stomach and digestion in sound condition before serious trouble begins. Price $1.25 per bottle. Maryville Drug Co., special agents. (Adv)

Letters From the School Children Tell of Vitalized Agriculture Work

Nodaway county's leadership in vitalized agriculture work will be maintained indefinitely if the interest that is being taken by the children in the various vitalized agriculture schools is any indication. Although the work is supposed to be confined to the last four grades in the schools, its influence permeates the whole attendance, and all the pupils take a try at it, combining with it practice in their English composition work.

Selected subjects are worked on. Then the pupils write of what they have done. At a conference of the teacher and pupils the best composition is selected and sent in as a letter to the county superintendent of schools. These letters come under the supervision of Mrs. W. O. Griffey of the office, who answers them, directing the letter to the whole school, but mailing it to the pupil who wrote.

The following letter from Quitman is a type of the communications that come in descriptive of the work.

Quitman, Mo.
Oct. 13. 1919.

Mr. Bert Cooper,
Maryville, Mo.
Dear Sir:

I will tell you about our field trip, going insect hunting.

Last Friday evening after the last recess we spelled and then went insect hunting. We all went out behind the school house in the alfalfa field. We took with us our insect net, the killing bottle and a wire box to put the live insects in when we caught them. When we first went out we saw a little butterfly. The boys caught it, and it was pink and brown and white checked. We were looking at it and we accidentally let it go. We caught a great number of yellow butterflies.

As we were catching the insects we lined up and had our picture taken. After the picture was taken I was walking along and a big brown butterfly rose up out of the alfalfa. I did not have the insect net and Douglas McDonald caught it in his cap and he gave it to me. Some of the boys caught some army worms and we put them in the killing bottle and left about forty minutes. When we went back to the school house we took the worms out and we thought they were dead, but they were not. I took the bottle home with me over Saturday and Sunday.

When we came back on Monday and opened the box to get our insects the worms were alive and had eaten some of the butterfly wings, and we put them in the bottle and killed them this time.

Yours truly,
ROBERTA YOUNG.

The following letter from a third grade pupil at Skidmore was declared by Mrs. I. P. Markley of the P. G. Holden party at the recent Harmony chautauqua, to be the best example of a letter from that grade she had seen since leaving teaching in Boston—and that was some time ago.

Skidmore, Mo.
Sept. 21, 1919.

Mr. Bert Cooper,
Maryville, Mo.
Dear Sir:

Our teacher told all the children in the 3rd grade to write you a letter. We are starting out nicely in our school work. We are making a collection of butterflies, bees and bugs. The boys found a bumble bee's nest that had honey in it. The girls catch the butterflies and we put them in boxes on cotton with glass over the top. We will show them to you when you visit Hickory Grove school.

Yours truly,
BEULAH HERRON.

WHY DO WOMEN SUFFER

When There is Such a Remedy for Their Ills as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

Mishawaka, Ind.—"I had such a severe female weakness that I could not do my work and I could not get anything to relieve me. A physician treated me, but it did no good. I had been in this condition for three months when I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound (tablet form) and it cured me. I keep house and am able to do my work now. I certainly praise your medicine."—Mrs. SUDA OLDFATHER, 123 West Second Street, Mishawaka, Ind.

Women who suffer from such ailments should not continue to drag around and do their work under such conditions, but profit by the experience of Mrs. Oldfather and thousands of others who have tried this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and found relief from such suffering. If complications exist write the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of their 40 years' experience in advising women on this subject is at your service.

Save Seed Corn Now For Several Years, Advises U. S. Department

1919 corn crop is a wonderful crop from which to select seed corn. Over most of the country it is well developed fully matured, hard and sound—just the sort of corn that a fellow can bank on for a good stand and big yields.

But it takes time to select seed corn. You are busy. Some other job is calling you before you finish the one you are at. You guess you will not take the time to select any seed corn to speak of.

All right—it's your business. But think ahead a little. Imagine that it is the spring of 1921. The year 1920, say, was a poor corn year. Frost came early and nearly all of the corn was soft. You haven't any that is fit to plant. The busy spring season is at its busiest. A score of things are calling to be done at once. You have to hitch up the horse or crank the car and start scouring the county for some man who has a crib of old corn. Probably you fail to find him and have to wait while the county agent or somebody "sends down South" and gets you some hard corn to plant. Some waste of time connected with that process isn't there? After you get it, perhaps it is unadapted to your locality and yields a poor crop of immature corn.

Save for Two or More Years.

That is one of the reasons why the corn experts of the United States Department of Agriculture urge farmers to select out of this year's crop enough seed corn to meet their needs for two or three years. No farmer, particularly in the northern portion of the United States, has time not to do it.

Still, the mere saving of time is not the only reason. By getting two or three years' supply of seed corn out of a crop like this, the farmer takes out an insurance policy that he can continue raising a variety of corn that has proved its merits. If he neglects this opportunity of providing himself with a good supply of the right kind of seed, he may have to start over with a variety that he knows nothing about, that may not be adapted to his locality or his land, that may bring with it some disease or insect pest, and that, in any event, he will have to experiment with for several seasons before he knows what it will do for him and what he must do with it.

Where Every Day Counts.

The saving of seed corn from a crop of the right kind is a matter of importance everywhere, but more particularly so in the northern portion of the country. That is where the vicissitudes of the seasons are most likely to bring about a soft crop. There, also, low vitality means the heaviest handicap. The South, with its long-growing season, might sometimes afford a corn crop that gets away to a slow start, but in the North every day counts, from the time the corn is put in the ground until the crop is safely heravested. Anywhere, however, the saving of the right kind of seed has a direct and important bearing on production.

The department of Agriculture believes that every farmer can better afford to take the time, however much his labor may seem to be needed elsewhere, to select at last two years' supply of seed corn from this years' crop, than to run the risk of being caught, spring after next, with no suitable corn to plant, with the resultant delay, annoyance, and ateual reduction of yield. The day or so that the farmer puts in selecting his seed corn will probably be the most profitable day's work he does in the whole year:

The members who attended were Lota Claire Landfather, Faye Hornbuckle, Bertha Roler, Olivette Barrow, Murle Lyle, Rozella Froman, Opal Thummel, Genevieve Todd, Roberta Cook and Margaret McMurry, and Miss Annice Neal, the class teacher, was the chaperone.

Surprise Bride and Groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Adams, who were recently married, were given a complete surprise Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Adams, eight miles west of Maryville, by the Loyal Berean class. The evening was spent in games and music, and the class presented the honor guests with a lovely wedding gift. Those present were Misses Alena Holt, Marie Lowe, Gladys Wiseman, Sarah Garrett, Thelma Garrett, Gladys Thompson, Bernice Holt, Lida Ongtott, Edna Meyers, Reah Shell, Lucile Duncan, and Joe Holt, Tom Adams, Hiland Thompson, Dale Ashford, Dale Hughes, Orland Ashford, Glen Adams, Owen Holt, Charlie Kelley, Raleigh Adams, Willie aGrrett, Robert Adams, Fred Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Elihu Shell, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hostetter, and daughter, Bernice, and Mr. and Mrs. Clint Adams.

Bosch-Carden Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Ida Ellen Bosch of this city to Joseph W. Carden of Trenton, Mo., was solemnized this morning at 6 o'clock at the Presbyterian manse, the Rev. S. A. Coile officiating. The attendants were Miss Luey Bosch and George Bosch, sister and brother of the bride. The bride wore a suit of blue serge, with hat and shoes of brown. Following the ceremony breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eri Bosch, 502 East Seventh St., to only the immediate family. Mr. and Mrs. Carden left this morning for a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home in Trenton.

Hannah-Owen Wedding.

Mrs. Mabel Hannah of Elmo and John H. Owen of Buena Vista, Colo., were married today at noon at the Bainum hotel by the Rev. Mr. King, pastor of the South Methodist Church of Elmo. They will make their home at Buena Vista, where Mr. Owen is now holding his fifth term as county treasurer of Chaffee County of which Buena Vista is the county seat. The bride is a daughter of J. B. Joy, formerly a resident of Elmo and Maryville, but who is now living at Buena Vista. She has been making her home with her grandmother, Mrs. Andrew Livengood, at Elmo.

Eighty-first Birthday.

Sunday, October 5, was an enjoyable occasion in the life of Mrs. Clark Andrews, formerly of Maryville, who observed her eighty-first birthday anniversary at her home in Santa Barbara Calif. Many were the felicitations received by Mrs. Andrews, who is not as vigorous as she was a year ago. She was remembered with numerous lovely presents and a large shower of letters and postcards, some of which were sent by old friends in Maryville, to whom she wishes to express her sincere appreciation and sends many, many thanks. Out-of town relatives of Mrs. Andrews, who assembled for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Harley H. Andrews of Pasadena, Calif., Mrs. Ed Andrews of Idaho Falls, Idaho, who will remain for a visit, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Andrews of Council Bluffs, Ia., Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Aldrich, the latter formerly Miss Carrie Andrews of Maryville, N. C. Pitcher and Mrs. F. M. Andrews. The event was celebrated with a sumptuous dinner prepared by Mrs. F. M. Andrews, a feature of which was a delicious birthday cake holding beautiful candles, which was made and presented by Mrs. Harley H. Andrews. This highly respected woman and her late husband made their home in Maryville for a number of years in the old Andrews homestead at the corner of Edwards and Buchanan streets. After the death of her husband several years ago, Mrs. Andrews moved to Santa Barbara, where she has resided since.

Wesleyan Bible Class.

Mrs. N. H. Brown entertained the Wesleyan Bible class of the First Methodist church last night at her home, 422 West First street. At the business session it was decided to devote a part of the time at the monthly meetings to the Home Missionary study, a short program being given at each meeting. Mrs. C. C. Leeson of the Woman's Home Missionary Society was present and gave a brief outline of their work. An order for the new text books will be sent in at once and the first program will be given at the next meeting. Fifteen members and three visitors were in attendance. The business meeting was followed by a social hour and the serving of refreshments by the hostess and Mrs. J. W. Herndon.

The members of the Berean Class of the Christian Church were entertained informally last night by Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Moore, at their home on Jenkins street. A re-organization of the class was effected with the following officers: Prof. A. J. Cauffield, president; Mrs. P. R. Moore, secretary-treasurer, and Prof. J. M. McDonald, class teacher. The remainder of the time was spent in progressive dominoes, and refreshments were served by the hostess and the entertainment committee, Mrs. Ed Hamlin, Mrs. Nellie Manley and Mrs. Albert Mercer.

Twentieth Century Club Luncheon.

A cafeteria luncheon will be given at 1:30 o'clock tomorow afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. S. King on West Second street to which the entire membership of the Twentieth Century Club is invited. Reports of the first district convention, held in Bethany last week, will be given by Mrs. King, Mrs. E. G. Orear district chairman of literature and reciprocity, Mrs. M. G. Tate, retiring district president and Mrs. Arthur A. Brewer, president of the local club. Plans will also be made for monthly luncheons of the club to be in charge of the eleven chairmen of the standing committees. The hostesses tomorrow will be the first ten members as listed in the year book. The members are urged to attend the meeting tomorrow.

Weiner Roast and Dance.

The sophomore class of the State Teachers College enjoyed a weiner roast at the College Park last evening. Following the picnic supper they returned to the building where they danced until 9 o'clock. Those present were Misses Helen Dean, Mabel Evans, Jennie Getz, Lois Harrison, Fay Herndon, Gertrude Hilner, Lavora Hudson, Myrtle Messick, Eula Pearce, Freda Peoples, Euel Ramsey, Fern Scarlett, Frieda Shaffer, Blanche Speers, Celia Weldon, Jasper Adams, Clarence King Howard Stewart Charles Elmore, Ferd Masters, John Lawton, Lois Hankins of the class, Coach Rice, Miss Margaret James, Miss Mabel Arnett, Miss Beatrix Winn, Miss Tessie DeGann of the faculty and Miss Beulah Brunner, class sponsor.

Mrs. Sutterlin Entertains.

The members of the Ladies Aid Society of the South Methodist Church met yesterday afternoon at the country home of Mrs. Jake Sutterlin near Maryville. At the business meeting officers for the coming year were elected as follows: Mrs. W. T. Gray, president; Mrs. F. C. Kelly, vice president; Mrs. M. L. Hopper, second vice president, and Mrs. Ed Dale, secretary-treasurer. The members decided to serve lunch at the closing-out sale of John Rickman to be held soon. The membership has been divided into divisions, headed by the first and second vice-presidents, hoping that competition will be conducive to more thorough work. A social meeting of the society will be held next Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Rickman, who will leave soon for her new home in Colorado.

Loren B. Price returned to Maryville this morning after a visit to Jefferson City and St. Louis.

D'ANNUZIO JUST AS HOMELY AS ECCENTRIC, SAYS AVIATOR

American Who Served With Him Declares Dictator at Fiume Has a Fine Personality

By HERBERT CARYL
International News Service Staff Correspondent

Boston, Oct. 15.—An undersized little fellow, bald-headed, about fifty-five years old, blind in one eye, wears a monocle and has a lop-sided face, with his chin pushed to one side."

This is the description Lieutenant Paton MacGilvary, former American aviator in Italy, gives of Gabriele d'Annunzio, the Italian soldier-poet, whose seizure of Fiume startled the world. Lieutenant MacGilvary, a native of California, was personally acquainted with d'Annunzio.

"But with all his distorted and misshapen appearance, d'Annunzio has a delightful and charming personality," quickly added MacGilvary.

D'Annunzio is erratic and unconventional in almost everything he says and does, declared the young aviator.

"He is continually shocking and angering many of his friends as well as his enemies. However, he frequently does things that excite their envy and admiration. Before the war he was an exile from Italy for several years on account of debt and scandal, but took such a daring part in affairs that entirely won over his countrymen. His genial manner and his happy conversation would captivate anyone.

"The great bombing raid in Vienna in September, 1918, during which d'Annunzio littered the Austrian capital with pamphlets containing a beautiful appeal for cessation of hostilities, written by himself, was entirely characteristic of the man."

AROUND THE WORLD WITH THE AMERICAN RED CROSS. In Serbia.

As far back as the first winter of the war, the Red Cross sent to Serbia a sanitary commission that effective ly checked the scourge of typhus, but after the United States entered the conflict, the Red Cross was able, in August, 1917, to send a full commission that carried on extensive relief operations among the suffering refugees of the tortured nation. Hospitals were established, the refugees fed, clothed and given medical attention, the army supplied with much needed dental treatment, farm machinery, and seeds provided to help the Serbs redeem their land to productivity, and, not least, measures undertaken for the succor of the children. The terrible condition into which these helpless victims of the war had fallen is well portrayed by this photograph of a little Serbian girl wearing the rags and expression of hopeless dismay that were all she possessed when the Red Cross came.

Early in the participation of the United States in the world war, the American Red Cross perceived the value of mobilizing the school children of the country and the Junior Red Cross was organized. Before the war ended nine million children were enrolled and helped in the war fund and membership campaigns, in chapter production of relief supplies and manufacturing furniture for the refugees whose homes and household goods were destroyed.

Children everywhere in the United States responded to the call to service sounded by President Wilson as head of the American Red Cross. This photograph is that of an enthusiatic young Japanese member of the Junior Red Cross of Spokane, Wash., starting out on the ambitious undertaking of collecting "a mile of pennies" for war relief. A comprehensive peace program is now being worked out for the Junior Red Cross, which is being held intact.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 10c and 25c.

HAD GOTTEN THE BEST OF COLBURN

Was So Run Down From Trouble He Was Flat On His Back—Gains 30 Pounds

"I have gained thirty pounds since I commeneed taking Tanlac, and the troubles that have been causing me to suffer for eighteen long years have been completely overcome," said William Colburn, who lives at 2118 East Lawrence Ave., Springfield, Illinois, while talking to a Tanlac representative the other day.

"Yes, sir, I was flat on my back in bed when I commenced taking Tanlac," continued Mr. Colburn, "and was so weak that I couldn't raise my head. I had suffered with stomach trouble so long and so much until it had the best of me altogether, and I was simply living on milks and liquid diets. I often had bad attacks of acute indigestion, and would suffer so much that I would become delirious. Once or twice before I got so bad I couldn't leave my bed these spells came on me while I was away from the house and I just had to lie there in an unconscious condition until somebody happened along and found me. I was awful nervous, too, and never got a good night's rest. I tell you, I was in a bad fix, and instead of getting any relief from the different medicines and treatments I took, I just got worse all the time.

"My wife got to reading about Tanlac, and as it was doing so many people so much good, she just went to the drug store and bought a bottle of it for me. Well, I took it for several days before we said anything to anybody about leaving off the other medicine that had been prescribed for me, and but when I commenced to mend so fast, we just told about it, and I kept on taking Tanlac. Every day I got stronger, and it seemed that the more Tanlac I took the more I could eat and the better I felt. Then I noticed that what I ate didn't seem to hurt me at all, and in a short time I was able to get out of bed and knock around in the yard, and soon I ventured down town, and I felt fine when I got back home, and when I had taken four or five bottles I felt so good and strong that I went back to work, and I haven't lost a day since. I just want to tell you right here that you won't find a sounder man anywhere in this country than I am now. Why, I am sixty years old, and I can actually do as much work in a day now as I could when I was thirty. Yes, sir, you can put me down as a friend to Tanlac, and as long as I live I will boost it every chance I have."

"Tanlac is sold in Maryville by Koch Pharmacy, in Conception Junction by A. M. Colly, in Pickering by H. M. Lincoln, in Burlington Junction by Coster Pharmacy, in Barnard by Bear Drug Co., in Elmo by King Drug Co., in Clearmont by Dr. W. H. Wiley, in Ravenwood by C. A. Shunk, in Arkoe by Rufus R. Smith, in Hopkins by Hopkins Drugs Co., and in Parnell by F. L. Hart." ADV.

River is Full of Goldfish.

Toledo, O., Oct. 15.—Lovers of goldfish in Toledo who desire to add to their aquarium collection need not pay high prices for pedigreed members of this piscatorial family. All that is necessary is a hook and a line. The Maumee river here is full of them, according to C. M. Lamb, wholesale fish dealer. He says the fish escaped from a pond at an asylum and made their way through ditches and drains to the river. He reports that many are caught by fishing boats.

Even the Convicts Strike.

Madrid, Oct. 15.—The convicts in the model prison at Barcelonia have gone on strike, demanding: sufficient water supply for a daily bath. Complete renewal of blankets and bedding. Three hours weekly to be devoted to the reception of visitors. Two hours' walking exercise every morning and evening. They refuse to do any work unless their demands are granted in full.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 15.—S. F. Barnett, a young man from Carrollton, Ga., must pay his mother $25 each month until he has paid $250 or go to the chain gang here for twelve months, by order of Judge Humphries in the criminal division of the superior court. Barnett's mother paid a fine of $250 assessed against the youth after conviction of stealing an automobile from the American Railway Express. Judge Humphries, in entering the order, declared he was determined the mother should not suffer beacuse of the crime of her son.

Ash Cart Horse Wins Beauty Contest

Newport, R. I., Oct. 15.—As the working girl is often the best looking, so the hardworking ash cart horse may outclass those petted in padded stalls. Elizabeth of Belgium Proves Truly a Queen; Wins Much Homage in U. S.

By AUGUSTIN LARDY
International News Service Staff Correspondent

New York, Oct. 15.—How New York "just loved" Elizabeth, Queen of the Belgians, during her stay in the city before her departure with King Albert and Prince Leopold on their tour of the country is an emotion the metropolis will experience far longer than is its fickle wont.

First, Queen Elizabeth proved anything but "stuck up," and that immediately endeared her to the city. Secondly, she was "chic" — Parisiennely "chic"—and that is another characteristic of which Manhattan is enamored Thirdly, the queen is pretty, and pretty in a wistful, gentle sort of way.

One reason why every mother in New York felt her heart go out to the Queen was the evident love that exists between Her Majesty and her eighteen-year-old son. And they are good chums, too, Queen Elizabeth and her boy. At all the receptions and other public appearances of the royal party it was the heir apparent to the Belgian throne rather than the king himself who was swift in those little attentions of politeness which Europe rigidly demands that men pay to women.

When the king was occupied with listening to a speech from some official, Leopold, Duke of Brabant, it was who stood behind the queen, smilingly relieving the noblewomen-in-waiting of their duties in helping her off with her dainty wraps, arranging her fall furs for her or lending her his hand in entering or alighting from a limousine. The son is fully a head taller than his mother, while Albert, gave, dignified, courtly, is head and shoulders taller than his wife.

Queen Elizabeth is not more than five feet four inches in height. She is slimly, delicately fashioned, but there is nothing lanquid in her carriage. She carries herself with the uprightness of a little soldier—as befits a woman who has deliberately risked her life under shell fire to tend her wounded countrymen. Her face is serious, and there is an appealing wistfulness about it. She uses not the slightest trace of "make up." Her smile begins in her eyes, changing their dark, serious gray to a merry twinkle of delicate blue, and her smile is a quick, sunshing affair that starts unexpected dimples playing tag with themselves over her cheeks and firm little chin.

She has a penchant for white in her attire, it seems. Despite the gray skies and the chill drizzle that fell when the royal party landed from the George Washington at Hoboken, she was dressed entirely in a cream-colored traveling suit, while laced shoes and a saucy little white traveling hat decked with a saucy little white pom. When she went cabareting the same night along New York's White Way she was still in white—her not-too-deeply-cut evening gown being a Parisian creation of shimmering white satin, and her opera cape being lined with heavy white silk or satin. About her compact coiffeur she wore a white veil of some white diaphanous material.

The eyes of fashionable and official New York were upon her when the king was tendered the freedom of New York City at the city hall by Mayor Hylan. She bore the scrutiny well; returned it, in fact. As she stood at the king's left while Rodman Wanamaker, chairman of the mayor's reception committee, and Mayor Hylan read their speeches of welcome, the women in the gallery and on the floor of the aldermanic chamber murmured their approval.

"My dear," said one well known Fifth avenue dowager to another, "she does not follow the fashions in the extreme, but her taste is truly French, is it not?"

And it was not the women alone who noticed her. One grizzled policeman detailed in the escort of the king's party, was storred to the poetry of his Irish-American soul.

"Sure," he said behind his hand to a reporter, "sure the little queen there is as sweet as a flower."

He spoke, not of her frock, the mode of her hat or the cut of her shoes. It was not in his untrained masculine eye to see that the queen was robed in a cream-colored street dress; that her white, closely feathered toque bore a brown aigrette; that there was a string of fine pearls about her bare throat in one medium-sized loop; that her gloves were of white silk and that there were bracelets of plain gold on both wrists. All he saw was the brave, sweet soul of the woman speaking in her steady, frank eyes.

Except when he had a chance to ramble about New York "incog," as he did the night of his arrival, King Albert is always attired in the uniform of the commander in chief of the Belgian armies. He wears the ribbon of the Legion of Honor and one or two decorations. There is not another costume simpler than his among his party, and compared with some of the bright blue and red uniforms of the colonels, majors and captains on his staff, his dress may truly be called the aristocracy of simplicity. Ribbons, medals, decorations flash, glitter and gleam upon the breasts of his staff. There is not a military member of the party who has not received fully half a score of decorations for service.

Leopold, the heir-apparent, however, wears the plain brown uniform of a private in the 112th Belgian infantry, with whom he fought at Dixmude. The prince saw eighteen months in the trenches, living the life of the Belgian soldiers, and no favors shown, either.

He just abuot looks his eighteen years, resembling his mother quite a little. The same frankness is in his face and gaze. It is a thin, boyish and handsome countenance, quite serious in repose, but lighting up merrily with his sudden smile.

Simplicity is the keynote of the Belgian royal family.

Horticultural Meeting Called.

Jefferson City, Mo., Oct. 15.—The Missouri State Board of Agriculture is authorized to announce that the Missouri State Hortcultural Society will hold its 62nd annual meeting in Springfield, Mo., December 9-11, 1919. Prominent horticulturists from this and other states will take part in the program at Springfield. The Missouri State Horticultural Society will hold a special meeting at Farmers' Week in Columbia, January 19-23, 1920, at which time they will hold an apple show and render a joint program with the horticultural department of the College of Agriculture.

This Broiler was Hungry.

Benton, Ill., Oct. 15.—The question of how many grains of wheat a broiler will eat in five minutes was brought up at a meeting of ladies of the Baptist Mission Circle. Guesses ranged from 50 to 600. The grains, which had previously been counted were given to the chicken, and to the amazement of all present the animal ate 732 grains in five minutes.

Love Letter in Husband's Pocket.

Frederick, Okla., Oct. 15.—Mrs. Jack Powers, a bride of but one month, ended her life by drinking poison at her home, following her discovery of a letter in her husband's pocket from a former sweetheart, who had not heard of his marriage. Mrs. Powers met her husband as he came home from work, told him what she had just done and died in his arms in a few minutes. A note written before the deed said she did not wish to stand in the way of his happiness.

May Lose Our Foreigners.

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 15.—Prohibition will drive many foreigners from the United States, according to Peter Dapilonia, weel known Italian and president of the Italian Importing Company. "When Italians come in here and want transportation back to Italy," he said, "I always ask them why they are leaving. There are many reasons advanced, but lately the one most often advanced is that of the recent prohibition legislation."

Sports Popular in Mexico.

Laredo, Tex., Oct. 15.—During the numerous revolutionary periods through which Mexico has passed within the past eight years many of the popular pastimes and sports of the Mexican people were dispensed with, including the ever popular bull fighting and the sportive cock fighting. Now, however, in all the larger cities of the republic costly bull fight arenas have recently been constructed and matadors are again the heroes of the day, while construction work has begun on specious cock pits where hundreds of persons can gather and bet on their favorite "roosters."

There's a World of Solid Comfort In the Rich, Red Tin

YES, sir, we mean that same warm red and gold tin that smiles a welcoming "Howdy" to you in every tobacco store. Know what those colors mean?

The red is for the friendly warmth, the mellow cheeriness, that Velvet puts into your old pipe. And the gold is where the Kentucky sunshine, that ripens good old Velvet, has just sort of soaked through.

Remember what Velvet Joe said about it?

"You've met canned meat and canned music. Ever see any tinned sunshine? Well, look into any Velvet tin."

And think this over:

We don't have to hide Velvet's taste or smell with a lot of this, that and the other thing. Because Velvet has naturally what pipe smokers want—real simon-pure tobacco taste and fragrance. It's just good, honest Kentucky leaf, made still more friendly and mellow by two years' ageing in wooden hogsheads. Just good tobacco. That's all. But it's mighty near enough for the man who wants a pipeful of tobacco and not a box of bon bons.

The picture of a pipe on the tin needn't keep you from rolling a jim-dandy cigarette with Velvet.

How's the Velvet holding out in your old red tin?

He Took a Shot at the H. C. L.

St. Louis, Oct. 15.—A customer in the restaurant of Saber Eseif on South Broadway took a shot (literally) at the high cost of living early yesterday morning. Eseif reported to the police that the man ordered a fried ham sandwich. When it was served the man looked the ham over critically, turned up his nose and, remarking, "I'll be back soon," hurried away. He came back in a few ndnutes and opened fire on Eseif. The latter ducked below the counter and missed three bullets. When he came up—he told the police he had gotten his own gun while behind the the counter—the man had left. Eseif didn't say whether the ham was "thin."

This is the first time that a four-state conference has met with a state convention, but matters of importance are to come before the organization. C. W. Fear of Joplin, Mo., is president of the four-state conference.

To Keep State Out of Insurance.

St. Louis, Oct. 15.—Opposition to any amendments to the workmen's compensation law, which would "put the state of Missouri into the insurance business," was voiced at the convention of the Missouri Association of Insurance Agents at the Hotel Statler yesterday afternoon, when Cliff C. Jones of Kansas City, chairman of the legislative committee, made his report on efforts directed against such amendments. Continued advocacy of a state fire marshal law, which was defeated by the last legislature, was decided upon. The sessions will continue through today.

Come to Battery Headquarters

Just because some garage man says, "I'll fix it and it'll be good as new," don't trust your battery to an amateur.

Come to battery headquarters where we have the equipment to really test your battery and the knowledge of what it needs.

Only a careful hydrometer reading can show if a battery needs charging. Only the proper instruments can give it a discharge test showing that it is properly recharged. It costs a little more to make repairs in the right way, but a thorough job is always worth while.

LEONARD EAR OIL

RELIEVES DEAFNESS, STOPS HEAD NOISES

It is not put in the ears, but in "Rubbed in Back of Ears" and "Inserted in the Nostrils." Tas had a Successful Sale since 1907.

I will forfeit $1000 if the following testimonial is not genuine and unsolicited:

April 8, 1919

"Dear Sir—It is with the greatest pleasure that I write you recommending your Wonderful Ear Oil. My mother has been deaf for over 20 years, and she used two bottles of your oil, and yesterday for the first time in over 20 years she heard Berry's Band play in Hemming Park here. Words are inadequate to express to you the thanks of mother and myself. I am a member of the theatrical profession and very well and favorably known here, and you can use my name in recommending your Ear Oil.

Yours gratefully,

ED. LAWRENCE.

The Story of a Turret Captain

Promotion in the Navy comes quickly to those who qualify for higher ratings. In March 1899 A. F. Nilsson enlisted in the Navy as an Apprentice Seaman, 3rd class. In April 1907 he was rated Chief Turret Captain. His pay today is $165.75 per month.

A man's life—among men!

Reel them off—"Rio", Gibraltar, Ceylon, Yokohama—all the great ports of the world—are they only places on the map to you—or are they ports where you've gone sailing in from the high seas with every eye along the shore turned admiringly on your big ship—your ship! Every ocean has a United States ship sailing for some port worth seeing.

If you've any call in you for a full life—join, and color all your years ahead with memories of things worth seeing—with knowledge worth having—with an inexhaustible fund of sea tales and adventures picked up ashore and afloat that will make you a welcome man in any company.

Work?—sure, and a man's work it is, among men.

Play?—well, rather, with a bunch of men who know how to play. These comrades of yours carry in their ears the sounds of great world cities, of booming guns, of swashing seas—sounds you will share with them and that will never die away.

And when you come home, you'll face life ashore with level eyes—for Uncle Sam trains in self-reliance as well as self-respect. The Navy builds straight men—no mollycoddles.

Enlist for two years. Excellent opportunities for advancement. Four weeks holidays with pay each year. Shore leave to see inland sights at ports visited. Men always learning. Good food and first uniform outfit free. Pay begins the day you enlist. Get full information from your nearest recruiting station. If you do not know where the nearest recruiting station is, ask your Postmaster. He knows.

Shove off!—Join the U. S. Navy
